

Come Sit By My Side, Little Darling

Pioneer Songs p.162

Lyrics put to Traditional melody
Arranged by: Michael Smurthwaite

Freely with tenderness ♩ = 70

1. Come sit by my side, lit-tle dar-ling, And lay your dear head on my
(2.1) dream when your arms are a-round me, That life is an in-fi-nite

4
breast, _____ While the an-gels of twi-light a-round us Are calm, _____ Your _____ kiss has the spell of a char-mer, Your

7
sing-ing the flow-ers to rest. _____ Your hands are as fair as the kiss that is sweet-er than balm. _____ Oh what could be sweet-er than

10
lil-lies, That bloom in the sha-dows of green, And their dream-ing, This dream that is on us to-night, Let us

Come Sit By My Side, Little Darling

13

opt.

touch has a mag - i - cal pow - er My heart from all sad - ness to think of the pre - sent, my dar - ling, The fu - ture is out of our wean. sight.

16

Come sit by my side, lit - tle dar - ling And 19

lay your dear head on my breast, While the an - gels of twi - light a -

22

opt.

round us Are sing - ing the flow - ers to rest.

1.

rall.

25

2.I

rest.

1.

rall.