

The Morning Breaks

Hymn # 1 Simplified

Parley P. Pratt Triumphantly ♩ = 88-100

George Careless

1. The morn - ing breaks, the shad - ows flee; — Lo, Zi - on's
2. The clouds of er - ror dis - ap - pear — Be - fore the
3. The Gen - tile ful - ness now — comes in, — And Is - rael's
4. Je - ho - vah speaks! Let earth — give ear, — And Gen - tile
5. An - gels from heav'n and truth — from earth — Have met, and stan - dard — is — un - furled! The dawn - ing of a rays — of — truth — di - vine; The glo - ry burst - ing bless - ings — are — at hand. Lo, Ju - dah's rem - nant, na - tions turn — and live. His might - y arm is both — have — rec - ord borne; Thus Zi - on's light is bright - er — day, The dawn - ing — of a — bright - er — from — a — far, The glo - ry — burst - ing — from — a — cleansed from sin, Lo, Ju - dah's — rem - nant, — cleansed — from mak - ing — bare, His might - y — arm is — mak - ing — burst - ing — forth, Thus Zi - on's — light is — burst - ing — day Ma - jes - tic — ris - es — on the world.

far Wide o'er the — na - tions — soon will shine.
sin, Shall in their prom - ised — Ca - naan stand.
bare His cov - 'nant peo - ple — to re - ceive.
forth To bring her — ran - somed — chil - dren home.

