

Welcome, Welcome, Sabbath Morning

Hymn # 280 Simplified

Robert B. Baird Brightly ♩ = 76-92

Ebenezer Beesley

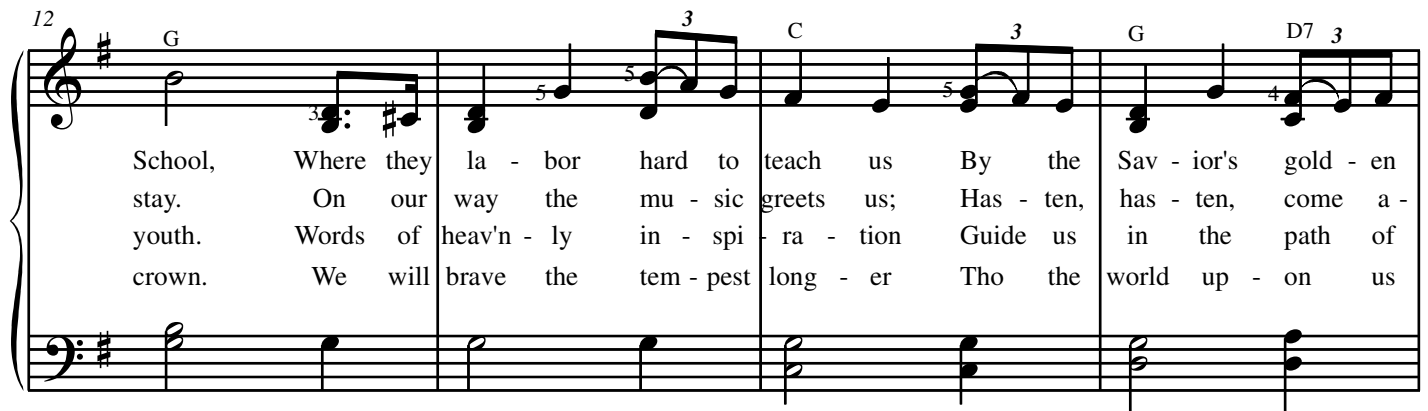

1. Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev - 'ry
2. Hark! the Sab - bath bells are ring - ing; Hear the ech - oes all a -
3. Here we bow in meek de - vo - tion; Here we sing God's ho - ly 4. Here we meet with friends and neigh - bors; Par - ents too are in the care. Wel - come, wel - come is thy dawn - ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of round. List! the mer - ry chil - dren sing - ing! What a pleas - ing, joy - ful praise. Here our hearts, with fond e - mo - tion, Seek to learn his ho - ly throng. We are ear - nest in our la - bors. To God's king - dom we be -

8 prayer. Lov - ing teach - ers kind - ly greet us As we meet in Sun - day sound! Ev - 'ry ten - der note en - treats us, Bids us come, nor lon - ger ways. From the books of rev - e - la - tion We are taught while yet in long. Tri - als make our faith grow stron - ger; Truth is no - bler than a

Welcome, Welcome, Sabbath Morning p.2

12

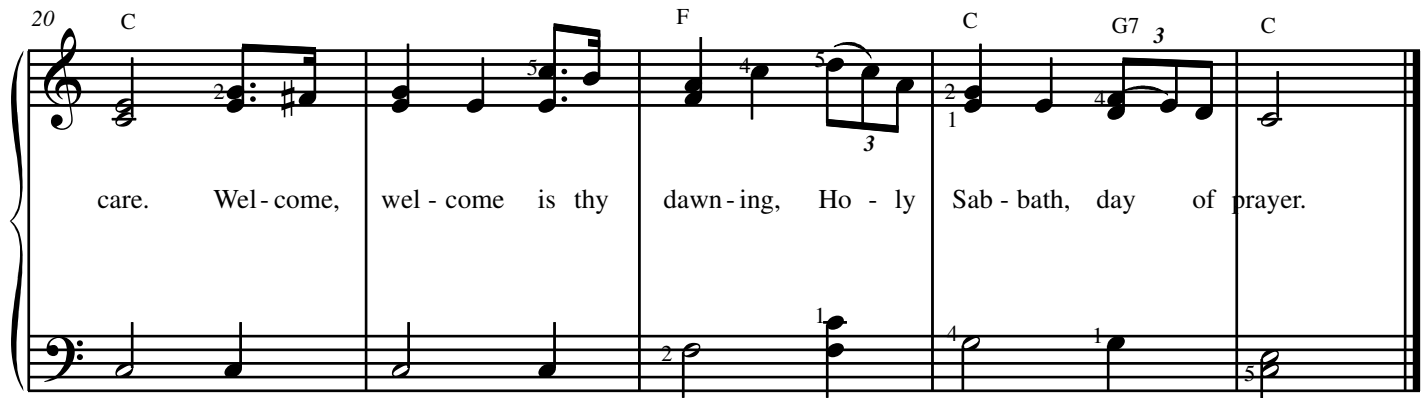

School, Where they la - bor hard to teach us By the Sav - ior's gold - en stay. On our way the mu - sic greets us; Has - ten, has - ten, come a - youth. Words of heav'n - ly in - spi - ra - tion Guide us in the path of crown. We will brave the tem - pest long - er Tho the world up - on us rule. Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev - 'ry way. truth. frown.

16

20

care. Wel - come, wel - come is thy dawn - ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of prayer.